

Homes
of Wasatch
Co
Govt

UTAH

153

but representatives of the Heaton family there reside, the community having its own school, electric plant and other modern improvements.

CHARLES LEGER is a mining engineer by profession, has had many interesting experiences in the mining districts of the Rocky Mountain region, and has been a factor in opening up and developing the mineral resources of the West.

Mr. Leger is a resident of Helper, where he has a profitable business, known as the Central Commission Supply Company, of which he is owner.